

Today I was invited to attend Northbrook-based Field Middle School's "Leadership Day" for eighth-grade students. Students go through small group workshops and hear from a variety of community leaders regarding how they can take a leadership role in their school and the community.

Congressman Kirk takes questions from Field Middle School students

Congressman Kirk with Field Middle School Principal Bob Machak and Superintendent Alexandra Nicholson